Reports of Officers

President: Kim Miller thanked the COB Board members for their service. Updated the club on Butch Brown (Street Dreamz Car Club member) on his recent traffic accident and offered Thoughts and Prayers.

Congratulated Streets of Bakersfield Car Show winners Mitch Townsend, Adrian Medina, Angelo Mazzei and Kernville Car Show winners Bill Dean and Marvin Wendt.

Reported the Board voted to join the National Corvette Museum for a 1 year trial at a cost of $250. Don Allen (COB member, SLO Vettes member and National Corvette Museum ambassador since 2014) addressed the club with the benefits of becoming a member. Membership was asked for a show of hands regarding this decision. The majority were in favor, there was no opposition.

Reported the Board voted to change club insurance from NCCC to Hagerty. Membership was asked for a show of hands regarding this decision. The total majority were in favor, there was no opposition.

Vice President: Seconded his congratulations to the Streets of Bakersfield and Kernville Car Show winners and added Mitch Townsend and Ed Combs were winners at the El Tejon Car Show, Adrian Medina was a winner at the Ventura Car Show and Kim and Virgil Miller were winners at the recent Prescott Car Show. Reminded the club that former COB member Betsy Slauson donated her 50th Anniversary Corvette to the National Corvette Museum for display.

Encouraged club members to consider running for Board positions at the June 2026 annual election as the majority of current COB Board members (President, VP, Treasurer, Events and possibly Secretary and Sergeant at Arms) will not be running for reelection.

Treasurer: Absent - Kim Miller reported account balances and stated they are available on the Members Only page of COB website.
